The Not-So

Newlywed Chronicles

Sensational Sixth Issue

It's 2011, time for another trip down the rabbit hole with Mark and Deb...

The New Year started with a quick trip to Myrtle Beach, as always hopeful promises filled the air.

But these promises quickly fade as Mark and Deb return to the work-a-day world.

Deb needed to spice things up a bit and soon there was a new addition to the family.

This caused some raised eyebrows and even a hairy eyeball or two.

Welcome Millie!!!

The seemingly shy, shelter cat quickly takes charge insisting on being fed, petted and played with.

Things take a turn for the worse when Deb turns to respond to Mark's "How are you Precious?" only to find out he is talking to the new cat.

Deb is hopeful that she can regain his affections after a lovely anniversary trip to Stonington.

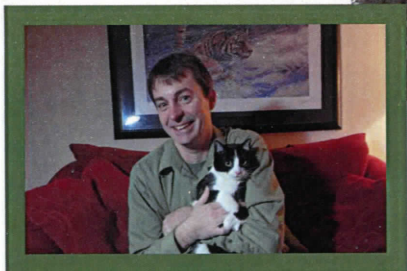

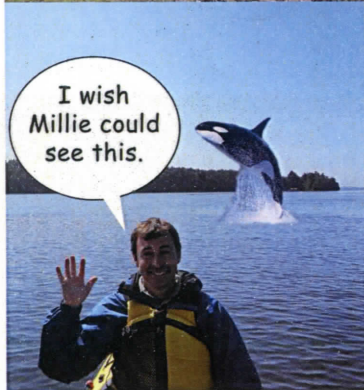

But shortly after that Mark leaves for Denmark for half a month... without her.

I love you too, Millie.

Jeg savnor dig Millie.

All is forgiven during a 2 week trip to Seattle-Vancouver.

Mark and Millie, and Deb too, wish you a Happy Holiday!
